The polls open, under the new election law, at 7 o'clock a. m. and close at 4 o'clock p. m.

MAKE AN

Under the ROOSTER.

Vote for Best.
Vote for Bright.
Vote for Richardson.
Vote for Lisle.
Vote for Cooper.

Vote for Nesbitt.
Vote for Hazelrigg.

Vote for Cleveland and Stevenson.

Vote the Ticket Straight.

An X under the feet of the Rooster votes the whole ticket.

Vote for Cleveland, Stevenson and reform.

Vote against the Force Bill.

Vote against the Robber Tariff.

Vote against the men, who voted for a negro to fill our offices.

Vote the Straight Democratic Ticket from e'nd to e'nd.

No Time For Grievances.

We earnestly commend the following words of Senator Hill, taken from his Syracuse speech, to the Democratic voters of this county.

"This is not a campaign of candidates, but one of principles. Remember this is no time for grievances. If you have any do not show them now."

"If I had one I would not show it now. Vote the Democratic ticket straight."

What the Force Bill Means.

WHAT THE FORCE BILL MEANS.

"A bayonet behind every ballot"—Senator Frye, (Republican).

"If it takes every gun in the country to do it."—The (Mt. Sterling) FORCE BILL Gazette.

"The Force Bill is a wise and patriotic measure."—Mt. Sterling Gazette.

Judge Holt and all the Republican nominees are for it.

No Democrat can afford to scratch at this time. The Robber Tariff and Force Bill must go, and every good Democrat will have a hand in sending them to eternal oblivion.

Who has said Jim Wood, should he by any accident be elected, would not appoint a negro deputy clerk? He voted for a negro in preference to a white man for office. Why shouldn't he prefer a negro to a white man for his deputy?

You know Jim Best is an honest man, who has with fidelity performed the duties of his office. He is a tried Democrat, who fights the meanness of the Republican party whenever and however he can. Vote for Best and the entire ticket.

A vote for George Ficklin is a vote for the Force Bill. He said by his vote in the Asbury-Cecil race that he would rather vote for a Republican negro than a white Democrat. How would you like to see a negro deputy sheriff coming to transact business with you? Vote the straight Democratic ticket from President to Constable.

Vote the Democratic ticket straight. Don't give the partisan Republican paper, the Gazette, the opportunity to upbraid you with treason to your party, as it has done those Democrats who eight years ago voted for the Independent (?) Judge Holt. A Republican never scratches, and he holds in contempt any Democrat weak enough to do such a thing. Vote straight.

A number of Republicans, of this county, are mad because Judge Holt failed to register. The Judge was at the K. U. Junction during the days for registering, but would not come up here, although he might easily have done so with only the loss of a few hours. They say it was because he was angry at a county ticket being put out in Montgomery against his wishes and strong protests. He is taking out his little revenge by not voting for the county ticket. This was certainly a piece of littleness on Judge Holt's part, that one who lives on the high plane, he pretends to do, should not have been guilty of. That he will not cast a complimentary vote for his opponent, Judge Hazelrigg, the Democrats do not care. Hazelrigg can well afford to do without it. It is unnecessary for us to say that Judge Hazelrigg left pressing engagements, and came home many miles in order to register. Bah! Judge Holt, you have not raised yourself in the estimation of anybody by this exhibition of littleness on your part. Hazelrigg will win this race.

Vote the straight Democratic ticket. Under the feet of the Rooster is the place to put the X.

Put an X under the Rooster and let him do the scratching.

Vote for Bright, Richardson and Best.

Vote against the infamous Force Bill, by voting the entire Democratic ticket.

The only place for a good Democrat to scratch his ticket to-day, is in the square just under the Rooster's feet.

The Rooster is amply able to do all the scratching necessary. Put an X under his feet and he will do the rest.

Democrats, compare your candidates man by man, with the Republican nominees, and we think no unprejudiced voter can point out where the Republicans have any kind of advantage, in personality, over the Democratic nominees.

It is a matter of record in our County Clerk's office that Jim Wood and George Ficklin voted for a negro in preference to a white man. Neither then, have any scruples about putting a negro in office. How would you like to transact business with a negro Deputy Clerk or a black Deputy Sheriff?

Let Montgomery give a full vote to-day for the Democratic candidates. We can't afford to scratch a single name on that ticket. This is a straight issue of Force Bill or no Force Bill; of a continuance of the McKinley tariff, or its reduction to an honest revenue basis. Will you be found voting for negro domination, or will you go to the polls and register yourself as against the revolutionary measures of the Republican party?

The issues are made up and when the sun goes down this evening the people will have spoken, and the policy of this government for the next four years will have been outlined. The Republican corruption fund has reached such proportions as to be absolutely startling. A week ago they gave up all hope of holding the reins, by fair means, any longer, and then was played a big card. Frantic appeals were made to Diston, Frick, and the balance of the protected barons of the East, and these have opened their bank accounts to the use of the managers of the Republican campaign. It is simply a question this morning whether or not the Presidency can be bought. Every other hope for Republican success is lost.

Make a X Under the FEET.

The National victory is assured to the Democrats. The Republicans have played their last two cards of money and threats of interference by U. S. Marshals at the polls. The people are indignant at the bold and shameless manner in which the Republican managers exhibited their money and avowed their intention to buy States. They are even more indignant at the threatened interference of the minions of a partisan Administration with their vested rights. They are going to speak to-day in such tones as will forever put at rest such impudent assumption of authority on the part of the miserable hirelings of a disgraced and dishonored Administration. The instructions sent out to U. S. Marshals by Attorney-General Miller sound as if the States of New York, Arkansas, Kentucky, etc., were in a state of insurrection. The people know their rights, and are only the more aroused in their determination to exercise them.

The last man in Kentucky has abandoned the open advocacy of the Force Bill, according to the Owensboro Messenger, which says that Dr. Kimberly, the Republican candidate for Congress from that district, has changed front on the measure. The Messenger asks this pointed question, which we take the liberty of applying to the Gazette as well: "Has the Doctor heard from headquarters, or has he simply found that Federal control of elections is not a popular issue?" It further says in this connection:

"If he should be elected, he would assuredly vote for Mr. Lodge's bill, or something exactly like it. He favors Federal control of elections after the manner of the Force Bill. This he does not and will not attempt to deny."

Unlike the Doctor, our esteemed contemporary, the Gazette, has the supreme gall to come before the people and deny that it now or ever did favor Federal control of elections. This, too, in the face of the most violent assertions on its part of an advocacy of such a measure.

Every indication points to the election of Judge Hazelrigg to-day, to the high position of Judge of the First Appellate District, by an overwhelming majority. Notwithstanding the vapors of Judge Holt that the high office of Judge of the Court of Appeals is above politics, he has sent out piteous appeals to the State and National Committees for money, with which to debauch the voters of this district. He has been answered with a contribution, the amount of which is placed at a figure away up in the thousands. But Hazelrigg, without money, we verily believe, will win in spite of Holt's corruption fund. Judge Holt is neither better nor worse than the average Republican politician. He like any other professional politician of his party, will break into office in any way that he can, and now that he sees all other means have failed, he proposes to buy his way in. We say, buy his way in, for surely the large amount of money he has cannot be used to advantage at this late day in the canvass, in any manner except to buy votes. But the people will speak to-day and Judge Holt will be relegated to the shades of private life.

You must cast your ballot before 4 o'clock p. m. to-day, or lose your vote.

Any Democrat who scratches to-day is simply giving his endorsement to the Force Bill.

Newt Greene says, "scratch under the Rooster, he will do the rest of the scratching."

This is no time to air a grievance, says Senator Hill. If you have one, don't show it now. Vote the straight Democratic ticket.

No Democrat can afford to vote for a Republican to-day; doing so is giving an endorsement to the infamous Force Bill.

A prominent Republican boasted to us a day or two since that his party proposed to make whisky flow like water to-day all through Eastern Kentucky. Read the section of the law in regard to the handling of whisky at elections.

Asbury in Sunday Clothes.

The Gazette and other Republican papers have been nearly frantic, for several weeks past over what they denominate a false picture of Asbury. We have been at some pains to procure the above likeness of Mr. Chief Justice Holt's friend, and now present it to them. If they are not satisfied with this we will simply have to give up the attempt to please them. Wood, Ficklin and Holt are on record in our County Clerk's office as preferring this woolly-pated son of Africa to a white man to administer our laws. Jo. Stephens did not vote in this county at that election, but does not deny that he, too, voted for "woolly pate" against Cecil.

United States Marshal Jacobus proposes to swear in 10,000 Deputy U. S. Marshals for special use at the election in New York City. These are said to be mainly floaters who are paid to vote the Republican ticket, and, if possible, intimidate voters. Sheriff Gorman will meet this little bluff with a force of special Deputies who will see that these Republican hirelings keep their places. New York is safe for the Democrats.

Frick—The Republican Burchard of this campaign.

The Denver Times, (Rep.) says: "Colorado's electoral vote will neither elect nor defeat President Harrison. It will go to Weaver electors and demonstrate to the entire country that Colorado is honestly and consistently for the free and unlimited coinage of silver."

Is it true that Judge Holt has $20,000 to spend as a corruption fund? If this is so, and he should be elected, how would he get it back again? When the Judge invests a dollar he expects its return with interest, and most generally gets it. There must be some mistake in this matter, because the Judge wants to enter upon his official duties "clean breasted."

Holt voted for the negro, Asbury, but could not find time to come to his old home and register, in order to vote for the party which he expects to carry him to victory.

Don't believe any campaign lies that will be sprung on any of our county candidates to-day.

It was very convenient for Judge Holt to be absent from this city on registration days. Probably he thought this method would help with the Democrats. He did not forget to vote for the negro.

The polls close at 4 p. m.

Vote the entire county ticket.
Vote for Hazelrigg.
Vote for Lisle.
Vote for Cleveland and a clean Administration.

THE PROSPECT.

The Outlook as Seen a Few Hours Before the Election

In the National Contest. The Conceded and the Doubtful States.

The lines of the battle to be fought by the great political parties throughout the Nation to-day, are now drawn. The issues are made up and only the voting and the counting are left for an anxious public to look for. It is a battle of the giants, and mighty are the issues to be settled by to-day's contest. Below we give what appears to us an unbiased list of the States that are certain to one or the other party, and a list of those which are doubtful.

The Presidential College this year will consist of 444 members. These electoral votes will, according to the recent apportionment by Congress among the various States, be as follows: The States which are admitted to be Democratic are:

Alabama	11	Michigan	12
Arkansas	10	Missouri	12
California	12	Nebraska	7
Colorado	10	Nevada	3
Connecticut	7	New Jersey	10
Delaware	3	New York	35
District of Columbia	3	North Carolina	12
Florida	10	Ohio	21
Georgia	10	Oregon	4
Idaho	3	Pennsylvania	32
Illinois	24	Rhode Island	4
Indiana	12	Tennessee	12
Iowa	12	Texas	12
Kansas	10	Vermont	4
Kentucky	12	Virginia	12
Louisiana	12	Washington	4
Maine	4	West Virginia	6
Maryland	8	Wisconsin	12
Massachusetts	12	Wyoming	7
Minnesota	12	Total	444

The States which are admitted to be Republican are:

California	9	Oregon	4
Colorado	10	Pennsylvania	32
Connecticut	7	Rhode Island	4
Delaware	3	Tennessee	12
District of Columbia	3	Texas	12
Florida	10	Vermont	4
Georgia	10	Virginia	12
Idaho	3	Washington	4
Illinois	24	West Virginia	6
Indiana	12	Wisconsin	12
Iowa	12	Wyoming	7
Kansas	10	Total	172

The fourteen States having 114 votes to which all eyes are turned, and which must decide the contest are:

Colorado	10	New York	35
Connecticut	7	Indiana	12
Delaware	3	New Jersey	10
District of Columbia	3	North Carolina	12
Florida	10	Ohio	21
Georgia	10	Oregon	4
Idaho	3	Pennsylvania	32
Illinois	24	Rhode Island	4
Indiana	12	Tennessee	12
Iowa	12	Texas	12
Kansas	10	Vermont	4
Kentucky	12	Virginia	12
Louisiana	12	Washington	4
Maine	4	West Virginia	6
Maryland	8	Wisconsin	12
Massachusetts	12	Wyoming	7
Minnesota	12	Total	114

Of these States Nevada is conceded to Weaver by both Democrats and Republicans.

The Democrats are loudest in claiming New Jersey, West Virginia, New York, Indiana and Connecticut. The Republicans are loudest in claiming Colorado, North Dakota, South Dakota, Wyoming, Kansas, Montana, Idaho and Nebraska.

It must be noted, also, that the Weaverites are having very positive claims to Kansas, North Dakota and Wyoming, as well as Nevada.

In the race for Congress from this district Lisle is all right, as far as far as every indication goes.

In the Appellate race things look exceedingly favorable for Hazelrigg. The chances are two to one on his election.

The Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney have no opposition. The county ticket will go in by a big majority.

The Force Bill Gazette says:

"The Republicans are tired of the bulldozing and intimidation that have held high carnival since the war and they are determined it shall stop." The only intimidation voters we are acquainted with is a section is from negroes toward those of their own race who dare to vote the Democratic ticket. This intimidation is no doubt encouraged and even suggested by the white men of the Republican party. The editor of the Gazette is a white Republican and the Gazette favors the Force
